

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Aluminum-silicon diffusion coated alloy products have a surface of aluminum-silicon diffusion coating of greater than 180 microns thick formed on workpieces made from an iron, nickel, cobalt or copper base alloys. Preferably the diffusion coating has a thickness of at least 200 to 250 microns.